Reportback from the Root Causes Pilgrimage to Central America

Rev. Deborah Lee, Director of the Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights, and others who were part of a People of Faith Root Causes of Migration delegation to Honduras and Guatemala will present stories and findings from their trip.

In August 2015, 16 faith leaders traveled for 10 days to Honduras and Guatemala to find out why so many unaccompanied minors and families have been forced to migrate to the US seeking protection. They went to look more deeply at the causes of violence and poverty. They met with indigenous communities, families of disappeared migrants, migrant shelters, deported persons and religious leaders. They listened and heard solutions and recommendations from communities most affected about how root causes of migration could be addressed.

We invite you to hear our stories and the recommendations we heard.
