

REPORT BACK Haiti's Popular Movement Says NO! to Fraudulent Elections

Rea Dol at SOPUDEP.

Rea Dol, founder of the SOPUDEP School (for many years fiscally sponsor by TFA), hosted Bay Area activists and arranged interactions with women's groups that she supports.

Students at the SOPUDEP School.

Maryse Narcisse, Lavalas candidate for president.

Delegates will discuss meetings with leaders and grassroots members of the popular movement, Lavalas; officials of the CEP (electoral body); and representatives of the OAS and the US Embassy. Also they will report on their investigation into the role of the United States in Haiti's elections.

Saturday • May 7, 2016 • 7 PM

THE REDWOODS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
110 Magnolia Drive at Alexander • Larkspur

$10-20 Donation Suggested • No one turned away for lack of funds

For more information: 415/924-3227, mitf@igc.org, www.taskforceamericas.org